Miss Marie Kistenmacher, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, wore pale blue crepe de chine and lace; her flowers were white carnations. Miss Dorothy Siegrist of Rock Island, niece of the bride, was ring bearer. Her dress was light blue silk, and she carried the ring in a tiny blue wicker basket. ## HOUSEHOLD HINTS

CANDIES.
Chocolate Caramels.—Melt three ounces chocolate, two cups molasses, one cup brown sugar, two tablespoons butter, one-third cup milk. Mix thoroughly. Bring to a hard boil. Remove into buttered pans. When cool, mark off in squares.

CREAM CANDY.—Two cups sugar, one-half cup water, three tablespoons vinegar, one teaspoon cream of tartar. Boil until it forms a hard ball. Add vanilla. Turn into buttered pans. When cool, pull into white.

PEANUT BUTTER.—Heat two cups sugar until it boils. Stir it. Then add one cup peanut meats and turn into buttered pan. If you wish, add one-fourth teaspoon soda as soon as sugar boils.

THE TABLE.
Mock Clam Chowder.—Boil two chopped onions 15 minutes. Add three medium sized potatoes and salt and pepper to taste. When potatoes are cooked sufficiently, add half pint or more of milk. (For a family of six there should be two quarts of milk.) Thicken with three crackers, pulverized. Fry three or four thin slices of pork, diced; turn over six or eight split crackers placed in a fire, after which pour the contents of soup kettle, serve at once. This is just splendid.

DUMPLING SOUP.—Cut one pound round steak into small cubes, turn into hot frying pan and cook quickly. In a soup kettle place two generous tablespoons butter and medium sized onion sliced; fry until brown. To this add four quarts cold water and the steak; cook very slowly two hours. Season liberally with salt and pepper and 20 minutes before serving add the dumplings as follows: To two well-beaten eggs add half pint milk, salt and flour enough to make a rather stiff batter. Drop by spoonful into hot soup, cover tightly and boil about 20 minutes, or until dumplings are light and thoroughly cooked. Vegetables may be added to this soup with what flavor the family likes. If, after your seasoning is added, you find it too salty, drop in several slices of raw potato, which will absorb salt, and add one teaspoon brown sugar, which restores the flavor.

CORNMEAL GEMS.—One pint cornmeal, one pint flour, one tablespoon sugar, one teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder, one tablespoon lard or butter, two eggs, one pint milk. Sift together cornmeal, flour, sugar and baking powder; rub in lard or butter cold; add eggs well beaten and mixed with milk; mix into batter of consistency of cup cake. Gem pans to be well greased and cold; fill two-thirds full. Bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

WORTH KNOWING.

Don't put away men's or boys' clothing for the winter or summer without first searching the pockets for matches. Mice will gnaw matches for the phosphorus. Bad fires are often started by them.

To Clean Windows.—Wash with some good scouring soap, rinse and rub with flannel cloth wet in vinegar; dry thoroughly with an old stocking (will not leave lint). You are sure to be pleased with the effect.

Easter Breakfast or Luncheon.—Take as many slices of bread as portions desired, trim off crusts and place in pans. Take as many eggs as slices of bread, separate, putting whites into one bowl and leaving yolks in a dish with crumpled paper. Be careful not to break the yolks. Beat whites very light, spread as high as possible on the bread, drop a yolk into the middle of each, sprinkle with salt, and put a small bit of butter on each yolk. Place in a slow oven until the whites begin to brown. Serve immediately. These are very pretty, very delicious, and at this time of year inexpensive.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Salad Dressing With Lemon Juice.—Two eggs, three tablespoons sugar, one tablespoon flour, one teaspoon salt, dash red pepper, a little celery salt, one cup milk, one cup water. Beat eggs, add sugar, salt, pepper, celery salt and milk. Mix flour and water to a smooth paste and add to above mixture. Cook in double boiler, stirring frequently to avoid lumps. When cooked add butter and beat it in with a Dover egg-beater, then add juice of one lemon. When ready to use add a cup of whipped cream and beat till thoroughly mixed with salad dressing. This is much more delicate than if made with vinegar, also more wholesome.

MOVING DAY HINTS.
Wrap dishes well with newspapers and pack in tubs or barrels or boxes—never in baskets.
Remove mirrors from dressers, buffets, sideboards, etc.
Empty all drawers or fill with pillows or something light and lock.
Take lids, grates, gas burners and side shelves from the stoves and pack them in a box by themselves.
Have everything done before the van arrives.

FISH BALLS.
Good Codfish Balls.—One cup shredded codfish, two cups mashed potatoes, one egg, beaten separately; season lightly. Soak codfish, shredded one cup, mix with the potatoes, add the yolk of egg and season; then add the beaten white. Mold into balls, fry in deep fat till brown.

Mackerel Balls.—Two cups of shredded boiled mackerel, free from bones; two cups of cold mashed potatoes, one quarter teaspoon of pepper, two eggs beaten well. Mold in balls; fry in deep fat.

A Message to Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks
An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. All good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution:—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain 10 pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.—(Adv.)

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been married 16 years and my husband treats me in a most peculiar way. At times he does not talk to me for weeks; he never tells me when he goes out of town for work, and he will not tell me when he is coming home to a meal—he is cross if it is not ready, and he is cross if it has been standing. Three times he has threatened to leave me. He seems very much to love with a stenographer and he continually tells me how much more attractive she is than I. Often he goes to dances and entertainments where she is. I am not allowed to talk to any man where he works. He acts as though he were jealous, but I know he can't be. What am I to do? Should I let the company know or let him go on the way he is doing? He only gives me a certain amount of his money to keep up the house, and I am unable to meet my expenses, although I scrimp every way I can. He does not hand me the money, but lays it down where I am forced to pick it up. When I speak of taking a roomer he objects. What can I do?

AGNES.
It is very plain that your husband is trying to force you to get a divorce. See a judge and he will tell you of a reasonable, reliable lawyer. The lawyer will start an alimony proceeding. In this way you can live away from your husband and force him to support you without getting a divorce. There is no doubt but that the court will grant you this.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) We are two cousins, 16 and 17. What kind of work could we do together? We are highly educated.
(2) Is it right for girls to go down town by themselves Saturday night?
(3) You might clerk in the same store, do plain sewing and become apprentices in a millinery shop.
(4) No. They would soon get a cheap reputation.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) When a boy sees a girl home from church, do you think they ought to walk down the track or the road, if the girl lives along the railroad?
(2) I had been going with a boy for seven months when all of a sudden we stopped. There was no falling out or anything. Now when I see him he speaks very friendly, but he never asks for a date. I have heard that he thinks quite a bit of me. If he does, what makes him get
